

Near Real-Time Tax Solutions, Every Step of the Way

CoreLogic® is unifying and transforming the residential property tax industry through our innovative digital solution—DigitalTax™ Portal. By leveraging our relationships with over 22,000 U.S. taxing authorities, our customers enjoy greater access to near real-time data across the loan life cycle, fundamentally transforming the level of transparency previously available to tax servicers.

Whether a servicer has five or millions of loans in their portfolio, CoreLogic provides clients with reliable and unique property tax data from the very beginning of the loan origination process.

Performance

Improve performance across your portfolio by leveraging CoreLogic's national coverage, technology infrastructure and exceptional near real-time data.

Accuracy

Tax servicers depend on CoreLogic to solve one of their biggest challenges—gathering accurate data—so they can focus on creating a positive borrower experience.

Timeliness

Through automation and greater access to near real-time property data, servicers can speed up workflows and increase homeowner transparency, without sacrificing quality.

Customer Experience

CoreLogic goes beyond basic property tax services to ensure compliance with tax requirements and authorities, helping clients increase loan quality with more reliable data.

From large banks to local credit unions, we are proud to deliver comprehensive and customizable tax solutions and exceptional customer service, to put people at the center of the mortgage industry.
